

Winterdaze punters will be caned by a very special performance from Sydney DJ Mark Alsop this Saturday. JOSH DARE caught up with the man himself for a whole 60 seconds.

My Ultimate DJ Gig would be.... working anywhere in the world to an audience that appreciates creativeness and something a little left field.

I never leave home without..... the red pills.

I want the whole world to know about my.... colour blindness (the blue pills are killers).

The most valuable lesson I ever learnt was... to check that I am leaving home with the right box of records.

If I want to kick up the party a notch I.... play something that the people may actually want to hear.

Most people don't know that when I'm behind the decks I... often don't wear pants.

I'll no doubt be remembered for... overdubbing Karen Finlay's 'Tales of Taboo' throughout my set at the Midnight Shift in 1986; and then the management banning the record for all eternity....it was a really rude record.

I'll never forget the time... I tripped over as I approached the singer Taylor Dayne and fell hands first on to her tits (she gave me a really big smile).

One of the advantages Melbourne has over Sydney is... my home detention bracelet doesn't work down here!

Winterdaze punters can look forward to... a) me leaving on the next flight back to Sydney (laughs), b) Winterdaze will do what most Sydney parties have forgotten how to do; showcase House music as the main draw card.

Winterdaze @ Inflation, 60 King St City.
